This matter comes before the court after a review of the docket and pursuant to NECivR 41.2, which states in relevant part: “At any time, after appropriate notice, a case not being prosecuted with reasonable diligence may be dismissed for lack of prosecution.”

The complaint was filed on June 3, 2024, Filing No. 1, and an amended complaint on July 24, 2024. Filing No. 14. Defendants filed a motion to dismiss on August 30, 2024. Filing No. 15. Defendants’ motion was granted in part and denied in part on September 27, 2024. Filing No. 21. Despite claims remaining, no answer or other responsive pleading has been filed. Accordingly,
